

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestic

From SATURDAY November 17, to SATURDAY November 24, 1739.

Extract of a Letter from Versailles, Aug. 6.

THE 30th of last Month, at Night, the Court received a Courier from Madrid, whose Dispatches, it is said, roll'd on the Differences between his Catholick Majesty and the King of Great-Britain, and especially the Measures to be taken for securing the Arrival of the Affogues Ships which are expected at Cadiz in a short Time. This Courier was sent back to Spain the Third Instant. According to our last Advices from that Kingdom, the Spaniards are still making great Preparations for War both by Sea and Land; and we are assured that in a Grand Council held here this Morning a Resolution has been taken to observe literally the Engagements between this Court and the King of Spain; so that if the King of Great Britain continues his Measures against his Catholick Majesty, the Rupture between them will in all probability be attended with greater Consequences than was imagined at first. It is certain that the Count de Maurepas, Secretary of State for the Marine, has sent Orders to all the Sea-Officers to be at their respective stations the 10th Instant; and the Marquis de la Luzerne, Lieutenant General of the Marine, has received Orders to set out for Brest the 8th, in order to hasten the Armaments making in that Port. The Earl of Waldegrave, Ambassador from his Britannick Majesty, has lately had a fresh Conference with Cardinal de Fleury at Issy: We can't yet justly tell what pass'd therein however, a great many People assure that his Excellency was not very well pleas'd with the Result of that Conference: Some even declar'd to him, in the King's Name, that if the English make Reprizals on the Spaniards, his Majesty will order his Marine to oppose them. However it be, his Excellency, who will stay some time in the Neighbourhood of Compeigne dispatch'd a Courier to his Court the second Instant, who was followed by another two Days after.

LONDON, August 9.

We having receiv'd from authentick Hands the following Account of the Spanish Fleet at Cadiz, thought the Publication thereof would not prove unacceptable to our Readers at this juncture.

4 more of 60 and 70 Guns,	2 of 70
At Carthagena, mann'd and ready to sail,	1 of 70 2 of 64 2 of 36

They are pressing along the Coast to man the Fleet, and have brought from Majorca 1200 Men, from Barcelona 500, from Alicante 250, and from Malaga 700 Men for the Fleet, beside a great Number at Cadiz, and along the Western Coast. Since I have receiv'd the List, we have an Account, that they are turning their Gallies into Men of War, and the Flota to be sloop.

The Master of a Ship arriv'd from Oporto, met a few Days ago, off Cape Finister, Sir

exl

Sir Chaloner Ogle, with the Squadron under his Command; and was inform'd that their Commission had been opened, which was, to take, sink or destroy all Ships, &c. belonging to his Catholick Majesty, and that they should make all haste imaginable to cruise off the Canary Islands.

We hear that the Merchants, Insurers and others, who are deeply concern'd in the Affogues Ships, are in great Pain, for fear that the said Ships should fall into the Hands of Admiral Haddock. There is 50,000*l.* insur'd on them here, on the Account of France, Spain and Holland. And Yesterday it was hotly rumour'd on Change that one of the Affogues Ships had fallen into the Hands of Admiral Haddock, but this wants Confirmation, and is too good News we fear to be true.

It's said, and believed to be Fact, that the Greyhound Man of War being on a Cruise, was fired at by a French Ship from Martinico, on which the Man of War gave her a Broad-side, boarded her, and carried her into Gibraltar. The French say in their Defence, that they took the Man of War for a Sallee Rover, which was the Occasion of firing at her.

An Order is issued at the War-Office to all the Officers belonging to the Regiments at Gibraltar and Port-Mahon that are here, to repair to their respective Regiments directly, on Pain of being cashier'd.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 24
